

A Bit of Lace Dolly Shawl

A featured pattern in the Bits of Lace 2012 Series at the KnitHeartStrings.com membership site

A Bit of Lace Dolly Shawl is a great way to have fun learning on a small shawl before putting the time into a larger shawl. You'll learn

- the basics of shaping a top-down Faroese-style shawl
- the attach-as-you-knit method for knitting a lace edging as a bind off

The size is suitable for 18" dolls and teddy bears, making it a delightful gift for a lucky doll or teddy bear lover!

Finished Size

Approximate 8" center back length

Tools and Supplies

Approximately 100 yards of any fingering weight or light sport weight yarn

Size US 7 or 8 (4.5 mm or 5 mm) needles

4 markers, 1 of which is a different color

Gauge

Approximately 18 stitches = 4" in garter stitch