

Bead Skinny Skarf

Bead Skinny Skarf is a play on words, reflecting on the fashion of cinching in a waist to look skinny. Bead Skinny gives the illusion of cinching the curvy lines of the faux eyelet cable with a pretty bead.

A bonus is pleasing reversibility thanks to how the ribbed texture surrounding the lozenges of eyelets and the beads are equally prominent on both the right side and wrong side.

Finished Size Approximately 5" at widest by 40" long

Materials and Supplies

1 ball Aunt Lydia's Fashion Crochet (Size 3) 100% cotton 150 yards/50g or equivalent fingering weight yarn; shown in color Copper Mist

Size US 6 (4 mm) knitting needles suggested

Gauge: Approximately 6 stitches / inch over blocked stitch pattern

46 Crow Beads size 9 mm diameter by 6 mm height or similar large beads; shown in Red Opaque

For placing beads: US steel size 4 crochet hook or similar that is small enough to fit through the hole in beads

Skill Level Intermediate

Stitch Instructions Charted and written

Beading Technique Crochet hook method

Construction Worked end-to-end in one piece; no seams to sew